THE ARROW 1958

A Picture Story of the School Year 1957-58
Milwaukee Country Day School

Volume Thirty-One

This page is dedicated to the many companies and individuals who have made this book possible. They have also made possible a more extensive layout and coverage of school affairs because of their willingness to have their names appear in a list rather than on a number of pages of advertising, which in the past have amounted to almost one-half of the book.

Because of printing deadlines for this first portion of the book, we have had to place the list in a latter section. But we do want to give recognition here.

The Editors

To Paul Waterman, P.W.W., this yearbook is affectionately dedicated. But what do we say with words, which at this point are inadequate? How does one sum up thirty-eight years of devotion to Country Day and its students?

We don't like the idea of saying good-bye. We'd rather recall the speech accents reminiscent of Vermont; the masterful performances on the night of Mujiji; the everlasting patience in math class with many of us who were dullards. The fond regards of nearly a thousand graduates go with you, Paul. But we won't say good-bye; it sounds too final. We prefer its older form: God be with you.

John 1:1-14 (cont'd) 1/10/00 1. In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. 2. He was in the beginning with God. 3. All things were made through him, and without him was not anything made that was made. 4. In him was life, and the life was the light of men. 5. And the light shone in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it. 6.
There came a man sent from God, whose name was John. 7. The same came from God, and was sent into the world, and he came to his own, and his own received him not. 8. But unto them all that received him, gave he power to become the sons of God: even to those who believe in his name. 9. This was his witness, that he gave him of his Spirit. 10. And he came for this cause, that he might bear witness of the light, that all men might through him believe.
11. He was not that light, but came to bear witness of the light.
12. He was not the light, but was sent to bear witness of the light. 13. And the true light which gives light to every man comes into the world. 14. He was in the world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not.
